Proviso to section 54.

(a) With the permission of the Collector of Customs the master may deliver to the Customs officer authorised to receive the same, in lieu of the manifest in the form prescribed in section 55, an extract from the cargo-book duly signed. Proviso to section 55.

Section 63—period to be reduced.

(e) Section 63 is so far extended that every application shall be made by or on behalf of the master at least 4 hours before the intended departure of the vessel and that the provisions of section 55 relating to amendments of the import manifest shall mutatis mutandis apply to the export manifest, and that an extract from the cargo book can be produced in lieu of the manifest.

Proviso to section 83

(f) Whenever goods are landed under the provisions of section 63 it shall be within the option of the master of the vessel to carry free goods to the warehouse of the agent of the vessel instead of to the Custom-house subject to any rules made by Government under Madras Act III of 1885.

(ii) When, in the case of vessels coming from customs ports only, and having no dutiable cargo, the duplicate shipping bills are delivered with the manifest as provided in section 159 of the Sea Customs Act (VIII of 1878), the cargo may be forthwith loaded and removed by the owner without entry thereof and clearance for home consumption, but to all cargo not covered by shipping bills the provisions of chapters VII and IX are hereby extended.

(iii) In the case of vessels referred to in clause (5), section 162, that have touched at foreign ports, or have on board dutiable cargo, the free cargo from customs ports may be dealt with as prescribed in rule 2 (ii) above as soon as the dutiable cargo from customs ports and all cargo from foreign ports has been discharged.

(iv) All the provisions of sections 61, 83, 85, 86 and 136 are extended to all coasting vessels other than steamers and square-rigged vessels and vessels plying under a general pass.

No candidate suffering from any contagious disease will be admitted to the examination room.

(2) No candidate will be allowed to quit the examination room on any day until the expiration of half an hour from the time fixed for the commencement of the examination, and candidates arriving after the expiration of that half hour will not be admitted.

(3) No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination room during the hours of examination after once quitting it, nor to leave the room without finally giving up his answer papers.

(4) Any candidate detected in speaking to, or in any way communicating with, any other candidate will be at once removed from the room, and the circumstance reported to the Commissioner.

(5) Any candidate suspected of having had recourse to malpractice of any kind is liable to have his examination invalidated and also to be debarred from appearing again for any of the examinations under the control of the Commissioner for such term of years as the Commissioner may think fit; or, if the Commissioner is not satisfied as to the trustworthiness of his results, he may be required to undergo a re-examination in any one or more of the subjects of the examination for which he appeared.

(6) No candidate will, on any account, be allowed to take into the examination room slates, books, manuscripts or papers of any kind. Any one detected in the violation of this rule, or having recourse to any unfair practices, will be removed from the room, and the occurrence reported to the Commissioner. The use of mathematical instruments for drawing figures or ruling lines will, however, be allowed.

(7) Candidates whose names are not in the printed list furnished to the Superintendents must submit a written declaration through the Superintendents, giving full particulars in regard to themselves and furnish such evidence as may be possible of their having applied for admission to the examination at the proper time and paid the prescribed fees. The answer papers of such candidates will not be valued unless it is clear that the omission of their names is due to no fault of theirs.

(8) Candidates choosing to change their place of examination without previous permission, or appearing at any centre other than the one at which they ought to have appeared according to the notice published in the Gazette, must not expect to have their papers valued or their results published. In all cases where permission has been granted, the memorandum or letter permitting the change should be produced for the satisfaction of the Superintendents.

(9) A candidate having completed his paper will rise from his seat and remain standing until the Superintendent takes his answer papers. Any candidate wishing to ask any question of the Superintendent will pursue the same course, but will on no account leave his place.

(10) Any papers sent up without the candidate's name and number affixed will not be valued.
